

COMPLIANT JURISDICTIONS

As it relates to Volatile Organic Compound (VOC) content, PROSOCO products are manufactured and marketed in compliance with the US Environmental Protection Agency's AIM VOC regulations. This table provides information regarding product compliance with individual state and district jurisdictions more restrictive than the US EPA rule.

States not otherwise listed below follow the national US EPA regulation.

X = product is compliant for listed jurisdiction

A shaded cell means the product is NOT compliant for listed jurisdiction
